MISSIONS MOMENT

Once school is back in session summer is officially over for most of us. Getting into a new schedule is comforting sometimes. Have you gotten into a new routine of looking around to see what God is doing in your world?

We have many challenges facing us in the next few months. Lots of decisions will be made in our state and country. I have been encouraged with the ways God's name has been praised lately, especially with the Olympic athletes who gave Him praise for their accomplishments. One of our early missionaries said, "We cannot be silent." This is especially true today while many of our freedoms are being challenged. This is the time to speak up and share the Gospel!

From our missionaries:

The Morris Family is in the USA from their IMB position in South Africa and send this message: "Thank you so much for prayers for Susan's surgery. She is off of crutches and we have made it to the USA. Our new phone number while in the USA is: 434-258-6373W. We would appreciate prayers for continued healing for Susan, her mom, and for a safe delivery of Kristie and Bryce's baby boy #2."

The Phillips Family in Niger is celebrating their 10th year with the Songhai. Pray for Mark as he is recovering from a bout of Malaria.

Larry and Gail in Jerusalem: "Ask the Lord to open people's hearts, making them more receptive to accepting the Truth. Ask that all believers would look up and notice those open and willing to hear (John 4:35). Pray for all believers to proclaim with boldness (Ephes. 6:18-20). Pray that the Lord of the harvest would send more workers (Matt. 9:38)."

Special dates to remember:

September 11/Open House at Peaceful Valley Camp

October 22/Regional WMU Leadership Conference in Dexter
